FOR THE FAMILY---Mrs. Dale (Sharon) Scott on Saturday night at the awards banquet accepted for her husband the second annual Distinguished Service Award presented by the Campbell JayCees.

Scott, who was in Washington, D.C., was chosen by the judges over seven other nominees for the coveted award which goes to the young man or woman (21-35) who has shown outstanding leadership qualities in the community.

Dr. David Barry, executive vice-president of San Jose State, and main speaker at the banquet, made the presentation to Mrs. Scott.

OUT ON THE LIMB with George Vierhus

THOSE SIGNS FOR THE San Jose city council candidates that have appeared within our city limits are illegal.

Last week you might recall we sounded off about such signs sprouting up on vacant lots and on poles within Campbell.

We suggested that the San Jose council candidates should study the boundary lines of their city more carefully.

Members of Campbell's city council agreed with our feelings on the matter and emphatically directed the city staff to get rid of 'em as they were in violation of the city's sign ordinance which specifies that election campaign signs can be erected in Campbell only when the electorate of this city are participating in the voting.

And the people of this city are not voting in the San Jose council election which is something for which we all can be thankful.

That city is in a pretty confused state of affairs.

If the city staff has missed some of the sign law-breakers, call city hall.

That is, if you feel strongly enough on the issue.

And some do.

ANOTHER ITEM IN last week's column referred to the long-suffering residents of the streets adjacent to West Valley College who have to put up with college students parking all day in front of their homes.

The provoking part, of course, is that the college-maintained parking lot off Rincon Ave. is less than half full most of the time.

A resident on one of the streets was ready to give us credit for relieving the situation this week.

He said the streets were clear for the first time since college was in session.

As much as we wanted to accept this evidence of the power of the press, we had to back off.

College classes weren't in session.

It is Easter Week.

THE NATION MOURNED the passing of its most distinguished leader this week as Dwight Eisenhower was laid to rest with fitting honors. NO man, since George Washington, had compiled the record made by Ike as a military leader and statesman of his country.

True, U.S. Grant was a successful general in the Civil War prior to becoming president but Grant's military task was welding a sectional army together compared to Ike's worldwide job.

One of the official meetings back in Washington that was called off because of the passing of former President Eisenhower was the National Legislative Council sponsored by the National League of Cities.

It was scheduled for the first three days of the week. Three Campbell councilmen, Ralph Doetsch, Ed Rogers and Homer Hyde, and Mayor Bill Smeed had planned to attend the conference.

Smeed and Doetsch were already on their way to Washington by plane when word was received that the conference had been called off.

So the City of Campbell was represented in Washington with the other heads of state from all over the world, at this sad and solemn occasion.

Rogers and Hyde were taking a later flight. Word came of the cancellation before they enplaned, so they didn't make the trip.

EASTER 1969---The Rev. Anthony Wayne Myers, pastor of the Campbell Congregational Church since June, 1966, presents the annual Easter Message in this issue.

an Easter Message 1969

BY ANTHONY WAYNE MYERS

No doubt about it, Easter means people find hope through their faith in God.

We Americans are not a godless people. We trust in God. Easter is a "demonstration day" to show our trust.

Let the cynical say that those filling the churches are only "holiday Christians". The facts show something else.

Surveys of Easter attendance reveal that a predominant number of Easter worshippers are participating families in the churches.

Easter visitors are always welcome in all of our local congregations. Those member families who are there to witness to their faith in a God who triumphs over evil and death want to share their faith.

Whether you are Protestant or Roman Catholic you are reminded at Easter of your obligation to worship God and to serve Him joyfully.

The Easter message is clear: God has triumphed over our sin and death!

No wonder we have cause to hope.

No wonder we all sing songs of victory on Easter Sunday.

Planners face another station

An application for a car wash and two gas pumps on property at 2260 and 2270 Winchester and 33 Kennedy will be on the agenda of the Planning Commission next Monday, April 7, in addition to a number of zone change requests and a proposed shopping center plan.

Ira Brotzman is the applicant for the car wash-gas pump operation on Winchester near St. Lucy's.

Sutter Hill Development Co., a firm that has been involved in other developments on W. Hamilton Ave. is asking Planning Commission approval of plans and the construction schedule for a 3.9 acre parcel within the P-D (planned development) zone at 850 W. Hamilton near Darryl Drive.

Schools, city join in park program

POINTING THE WAY—The $625,000 city park bond issue that goes before the voters on June 10 includes $80,000 that will be used to improve neighborhood parks at eight different schools ($10,000 for each) within the city limits.

The parks will be improved through the cooperation of the city, the school district and the various PTA and Home and School clubs in a unique joint financial effort.

The remainder of the bond issue will be used for land acquisition, planning and development of the city's community park on Rincon Ave. where a six-acre Campbell school district parcel, adjacent to the city property, is also available for park expansion.

Seven Campbell elementary schools, Dover, Rosemary, Hazelwood, Capri, San Tomas, Forest Hills and Rolling Hills, and Coventry in the Moreland District have been specified as participants in the program.

Podgorsek reported this week that Postmaster Jim Hurley has been named finance chairman of the bond campaign and appealed to those citizens interested in "saving our parks" to make their contributions for the campaign to him.

Mrs. Dale (Sharon) Scott is co-chairman of the bond drive committee and various other subcommittee chairmen have been appointed.

Podgorsek emphasized that this is really the "last chance" the citizens of this community have in reserving the fast-disappearing available open space within the city limits for park and recreational uses.

Churches mark Easter with special services

Holy Week services will be held in Campbell churches starting with Maundy Thursday observances in many of the local houses of worship. Good Friday's period of mourning will culminate in songs of rejoicing as Easter Sunday will be heralded with sunrise services starting at 6 a.m. at Oak Hill Memorial Park and on through the day as local churches plan services around the Easter theme of Christ is risen.

Banks will be closed between 1 and 3 p.m. on Good Friday, as will the city hall and the Chamber of Commerce. Most businesses have indicated they will remain open.

ST. LUCY'S

Morning Mass will be observed at 8 a.m. and evening mass and procession at 8 p.m. on Holy Thursday.

Good Friday services will be held from 12 noon to 3 p.m. with Stations of the Cross at 8 p.m. Confessions will be held on Saturday from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. and from 7:30 to 9 p.m. with the Easter

Participating churches include the Congregational Church of Campbell, the Assembly of God, the First United Methodist Church of Campbell, the Immanuel United Presbyterian Church and the Zion Lutheran Church.

The service schedule centers around the theme of "The Cross" and will include a 12-noon to 12:30 period of quiet meditation. From 12:30 to 12:55 will be "The Cross and Dedication and 2:00 to 2:30, "The Cross and Finality".

Clergy who will share in the services include the Rev. William H. Gould, Herbert Johnson, Foster Shannon, Roland Wiederanders and Anthony Wayne Myers.

Music will be presented by the junior choirs from the Congregational Church of Campbell and the Immanuel Presbyterian Church, a soloist from the United Methodist Church and the Assembly of God quintet. Special readers from the churches include Howard Jessee, James Bryson, Al Tawil and Leeds Gulick.

The service is open to the public and everyone is invited to come for one portion of the worship or for the entire period.

At St. Lucy's Catholic church Good Friday services will start at 12 noon with Stations of the Cross at 1 p.m. and a Liturgical Service starting at 1:30 p.m. Stations of the Cross and Veneration of the Cross will be held at 8 p.m.

INJURED---Mrs. Courtland (Jeanette) Watson, 61 Catalpa Lane, "citizen-of-the-year" for 1968 and chairman of the Campbell Beautification Committee is confined to O'Connor Hospital following a car accident Friday evening at Winchester and Capri.

Mrs. Watson was injured when she was a passenger in a car driven by her husband, Courtland, who received a cut lip. The accident occurred at the corner of Capri Drive and Winchester. Mrs. Watson suffered a back injury, broken nose and possible internal injuries. The Watson's daughter, Kathy, who was also in the car, was uninjured.

RESIGNS---Kel Young, of 430 N. Central, an electrical contractor and a long-time resident of Campbell, has submitted his resignation to the City Council from the Planning Commission, effective immediately. Young, who was appointed to the Commission in 1966, is currently serving as chairman. Ed Pack is vice-chairman. Young said that he desired to "take things a little easier" as far as outside activities were concerned. He added that his interests outside his business had been consuming more and more of his time during the past few years.

Dale Scott wins award as young-man-of-year

Dale Scott is the "young man of the year" for Campbell for 1968.

But his wife had to tell him about it.

Dale Scott, 31, of 264 Radford Drive, executive director of the Santa Clara County Taxpayers Association and a member of the Campbell Planning Commission, was awarded (in absentia) the Distinguished Service Award of the Campbell JayCees Saturday night.

Scott's wife, Sharon, accepted the award on behalf of her husband at the second annual awards banquet held at the Little New Yorker in Santa Clara. Scott was in Washington, D.C. on business but was notified of the honor by phone from the banquet room.

This marks the second year that the JayCees have given the award. It is awarded to the young man or young woman (between 21-35) who, in the opinion of the judges, has shown outstanding leadership qualities in the community during the previous year. Bob Dalzell was the recipient of the award in 1968.

Scott, a graduate of San Jose State, served as finance chairman of the successful civic bond drive in October, 1967 and was appointed to the Planning Commission last year after Dean Chamberlin had been elected to the City Council.

Coincidentally, Sharon is serving as co-chairman of the citizens committee that has been formed for the passage of the $625,000 bond issue for park land acquisition and development on June 10. The $850,000 park bond issue in 1967 failed to get the necessary two-thirds majority by only 30 votes.

DALE SCOTT

Dr. David Barry, executive vice-president of San Jose State College, was the main speaker at the awards banquet. He also presented the distinguished service award to Mrs. Scott on behalf of her husband.

In a special event, Jerry Gomes, president of the Jay Cees, presented George Vierhus, editor and publisher of The Campbell Press, with a plaque from the JayCees for "outstanding journalism dedicated to community progress".

Master of ceremonies for the award banquet was Pat Walsh and Nozer Haladwala was chairman of the committee for the affair. Serving with him were Dave Tovar, Joe Brundage and Mike Kennedy. Father Joe Larson gave the invocation and Brundage led

Congress Recommends

Five panel discussion groups at the Third Annual Congress for Community Progress held on Saturday, March 15, at West Valley College, made specific recommendations that were subsequently adopted by the general assembly.

Each panel, community administration, community education, community economic development, community youth and community urban affairs, hammered out the recommendations in the morning session after stimulating discussions.

Here are the recommendations as approved by the third Congress:

COMMUNITY ADMINISTRATION

1. It is recommended that Campbell's growth and development at all times receive responsible and cooperative guidance from its Civic Leaders to insure that orderly growth and development be of the quality which is in the best interests of the community as a whole. It is further recommended that the implementation of programs which will insure quality development be made successful by City officials, adherence to the City's General Plan, and their enforcement of zoning and building codes.

2. It is recommended that the procedures established by ordinance for architectural approval, as considered by the Planning Commission, be studied to see whether these procedures can be improved upon.

3. It is recommended that the City's policy of cooperation with school district be endorsed, and school districts be encouraged in every way possible to provide school facilities and lands, with at least minimum development, for neighborhood park purposes for the Citizens of Campbell.

4. It is recommended that a study be made with the objective of creating a more equitable economic balance in tax rates between cities and the unincorporated urban areas of Santa Clara County.

5. It is recommended that the City Council study the subject of a Charter form of government, as opposed to the present General Law City.

6. It is recommended that a study be made to determine the feasibility of involving to a greater degree, lay and professional people within the City of Campbell, in Civil Defense and Disaster Planning.

COMMUNITY EDUCATION

1. It is recommended that educational institutions, parent groups and community organizations focus more attention and promote programs offered by the Vocational Center.

2. Communication between governing boards of school districts and parents or community should be expanded to allow for greater interaction, understanding and participation.

COMMUNITY ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

1. We recommend the establishment of an effective selling program to attract desirable industry. The program should be developed and sponsored by Chamber of Commerce, City of Campbell, County of Santa Clara.

2. We recommend aggressive action by the city to annex desirable areas that are not now city associated.

3. We recommend the Campbell Chamber of Commerce take a land use inventory of all industrial and commercial property.

4. We recommend continued high standards be followed by the planning commission pertaining to architectural and aesthetic controls.

5. We recommend street improvements be made by the city to the Dell Avenue Industrial Park to attract and assist more rapid development.

6. We recommend adoption of the George S. Nolte report pertaining to the on-off ramp between Highway 17 and Campbell Avenue.

cil would have been fruitful from many respects. More and more it has become increasingly important that municipalities keep in close contact with Washington officialdom.

Some die-hards would prefer that local government remain aloof from federal bureaucracy.

But that day is past. Some cities find it expedient to keep full-time representatives (they don't like to be called "lobbyists" apparently) in Washington whose sole job seems to be keeping municipalities abreast of what's cooking in housing and hundreds of other major and minor issues.

Campbell is seeking federal aid, for example, for a redevelopment study of the substandard Gilman-Dillon-Railway area and also for parks and recreation.

So, in answer to those critics who claimed that the trip to the national conference was merely a "junket", for the councilmen, we submit that it might have proved quite valuable, if only to learn the best way to circumvent the federal bureaucracy.

Admittedly, however, the question could be raised as to whether four councilmen are needed to carry the scissors to snip the governmental red tape.

A CITIZEN INTERESTED in seeing that the public was informed as to the candidates seeking election to the West Valley College governing board received our permission to contact the candidates and have them submit brief statements to The Press.

All but four of the 11 candidates did so.

The instigator of the project, Caryl Dale, who was so interested in seeing that the public was informed about the candidates, unfortunately was misinformed about our name.

Her letter to the candidates listed us as George BIERHUS.

Ouch!

THAT SUGGESTION that was made recently that the "Wrinkled Prune Annex", nee the Sunsweet packing shed, in the heart of downtown Campbell could house, in the future, a local light opera company is not as farfetched as one might think.

We had occasion a short time ago to attend "South Pacific" presented by a light opera group in the Walnut Creek area.

The production was held in a former walnut packing house in Walnut Creek. The packing house has been converted into an adequate theater.

We were impressed by the transformation that had taken place in the interior of the building.

But it was quite easy to tell, if one looked, for telltale evidence, what the original use of the structure had been.

The building is under city control and the warehouse has been converted as a communitywide project in which various clubs participated, with the city underwriting most of the cost.

Actually what impressed us were the relatively few changes that had been needed to make the former warehouse into a passable theater.

We came away from "South Pacific" not only humming, in our offtune manner, the catchy music from that classic but also comparing in an offhand way in our mind's eye Walnut Creek's former walnut packing house with the three-story former Sunsweet plant in Campbell.

Very definitely the "Wrinkled Prune Annex" has possibilities.

THERE IS SO MUCH being planned or dreamed about for Campbell's future, that it has become difficult to know where the dreams end and reality begins.

One thing is pretty certain, however.

If a person should leave now and return five years later, he wouldn't recognize the old burg, especially from Bascom Ave. west.

The Spanish-styled "Prune Yard", the 18-story "Towers" a new city hall and library on a four-acre site in the downtown area are just a few of the changes in the sky-line that are to take place.

And who knows, by that time, maybe someone will have found the answer of what to do with the Gilman-Dillon-Railway area?

Or Campbell Ave.

Campbell district continuation high school win commendation

The Assembly Rules Committee of the California Legislature recently passed a resolution commending the Williams High School program in the continuation school field. Assemblyman Earle P. Crandall of the 25th District introduced the resolution.

The Williams High School program received a previous commendation from the office of the Director of the California Youth Authority, one of the youth agencies with which Williams High School coordinates its services.

The commendation reads in part:

"Whereas, the program was designed to rehabilitate disturbed youth and return them to a regular full-time, day school program; remediate weak academic areas of the youth; obtain part-time work youth; obtain part-time work for students who are in need of financial assistance or have difficulty relating school work to gainful employment; work with various agencies in the rehabilitation process; help the student become aware of the opportunities available in his community; alleviate handicapping family pressures; help the student to objectively assess his situation, accept responsibility for his actions, and make a commitment to a program of rehabilitation.

And whereas, as a result of this program, 95% of the students who would otherwise terminate their formal education at the point of dropping out, or being suspended from, school are helped to continue their education; and whereas, of those persons suspended from school, 70% make a successful re-entry into the regular full-day school program, and whereas, this program is the product of the imagination and devoted service of Laurance J. Hill, Superintendent of the Campbell Union High School District; Mark Guerra, the Principal of Williams High School; Loretta Campbell, secretary; Mary Chilcott, Robert Pierce and Thomas Strycula, teachers; and William Wallace, Counselor.

Now, therefore, be it Resolved by the Assembly Rules Committee, that the Members commend Williams High School and all persons who have contributed to the success of its high school continuation program."

Williams High School was established by the Campbell Union High School District under authority of the California State Educations Code "necessary small high school".

The program differs in concept from the old traditional continuation school. The multiplicity and diversity of student problems require a new approach and new objectives in keeping with an integrated program which is an extension of the regular school program, additionally there is a specialized aspect of the program composed of offerings to students who will terminate their formal education at Williams High School.

The flexible approach makes the district program more truly comprehensive. Present continuation school programs are no longer isolated terminal programs from which students never return to the regular schools, but instead are programs which attempt to rehabilitate and remediate the student back to his home school. The approach is tutorial in nature which personalizes and individualizes the instruction.

Assemblyman Crandall, a former teacher and superintendent remarked that efforts expanded by school districts such as the Campbell Union High School District through their continuation programs in effect provide new opportunity to a large number of students who would otherwise terminate their formal education prematurely.

COMMENDATION --- Assemblyman Earle Drandall (seated) shows teachers and administrators of Williams High School, the Campbell Union High School District's continuation school, the resolution that was passed in the Assembly commending the work of the school. Crandall, representing the 25th district, is the retired superintendent of the San Jose school district. Roof burglars nabbed in act

Three young men, one 20, one 18 and one 16, all from Santa Clara, were booked into county facilities last week after they attempted a "roof top" burglary on Record City, 877 E. Hamilton Ave. An auto stereo and tape store, the three were in the process of removing approximately $2,000 worth of stereo tapes when apprehended after they tripped a silent alarm when entering through the roof.

Booked into the Santa Clara County Jail were Ronald Potter, 20, and James Seymur, 18. The 16 year old youth, who was already on probation from the juvenile department, was returned to juvenile hall.

The Acme Door Co., 299 McGlincey Lane, lost two 1968 Ford trucks over the weekend after the establishment was broken into and the trucks driven out. They were loaded with various tools and doors ready to be mounted. Total valuation of the missing goods was pegged at $10,000.

NEAR CHU LAI

Army Private First Class Gregory A. Goodell, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard K. Goodell, 2212 Wren Way, Campbell, was recently assigned to the 16th Artillery, Americal Division, near Chu Lai, Vietnam, as a cannoneer.

Local store closes doors

E. H. Spangler, who has operated Spangler's Furniture and Appliance Store on Campbell Ave. for the past 12 years, has announced that he is quitting business. Illness in the family was given as the reason. A final close-out sale is now in progress, with all stock and fixtures to be sold, Spangler said.

"I have been in the furniture business for 17 years", Spangler told The Press, "and although we hate to say goodbye to all the friends and customers who have come through our doors in those years, our health comes first." He said he had no immediate plans except "to take it easy for a while".

The Spanglers, who reside at 3408 Union Ave., have three children. A son, Garry, 20, is an Army Sergeant at present stationed at Ft. Lewis, Wash. Their other son, Don, 23, is home on leave from his post as a merchant seaman with the Grace Lines out of Wilmington. Their daughter, Sharon (Mrs. David Young) and her little daughter are presently at home, but plan to move soon to Modesto to join her husband where he is employed.

Judge sides with teachers in back wage dispute

Three kindergarten teachers in the Campbell Union (elementary) School District have been awarded a judgment by Superior Judge Peter Anello for allegedly mistaken classification as to their status in the district.

The teachers, Barbara Campbell, Joan Peterson and Maureen D'Attilo, claimed that for the period of 1962-65 they had been classified as "substitutes" when they should have been "full-time".

According to Superintendent Neal Royer, all three were kindergarten teachers who taught for 180 minutes in a school day during that period. The teachers asked for full-time pay in their case in court.

After a long court session, Judge Anello agreed with the teachers' contention. Royer said that the district would await word from the court before deciding whether the case should be appealed.

Country Woman's Club to hear Mrs. Belser

Mrs. Karl J. Belser will be the speaker at the Country Woman's Club of Campbell at the April 7 meeting. Mrs. Belser has just returned from a three year stay in Taiwan. Many people still refer to the island as Formosa, but the Chinese prefer the name of Taiwan.

Taiwan is approximately the size of California and is located 100 miles off the coast of China.

Belser served there as Deputy Director of an Urban Housing and Redevelopment Project. This was a special funded project of the United Nations set up to aid the overpopulated Nationalist Chinese retreat. While there, Belser made regional plans for the whole island and a master housing plan for Taipei, the nationalist capital.

The Belsers were fortunate in finding a home in the mountains which had been built by a Chinese doctor. The climate is very humid, and the mountain air is considerably cooler and more livable than on the lowlands. In commenting on the three years spent on the island, Mrs. Belser noted that the economy seems to be progressing, industry is booming and conditions seem to be comparable to the situation existing in West Berlin as opposed to East Berlin.

The Belser's returned to their Dry Creek home just before Christmas and are still in the process of "settling in". Belser has now retired and they are delighted to be back in California, although they did arrive just in time for the very wet winter season.

While on the island Mrs. Belser took advantage of the new culture and took several courses in the various cultural medias. One of the features of her talk before the Country Woman's club members will be slides which she took of various places.

Hostesses for the afternoon meeting which will be held at the club house at 1 p.m. will be the Mesdames F. Albert Ellis, Bartley Killgallin, Herbert Shadle, C. W. Shockley, Seth Sampson and Mary Pelesson.

Part Masters to be honored at Grange April 8

The Orchard City Grange No. 333 will observe their anniversary night on April 8 and at this time all past masters of the Grange also will be honored. All members of the Grange are urged to attend.

During the month of March the Orchard City Youth group was the benefactor of a Sip and Dip dinner, with the funds going to pay for the expenses to attend the Easter Conference to be held in San Luis Obispo. John Morgan, Campbell police chief and Mrs. Morgan were guests at the dinner with Morgan presenting a talk on the role of the private citizen in helping the police force preserve law and order.

During the second meeting held in March the Grange members observed "Hawaiian Night", and appropriate entertainment was provided by a group directed by Irene Lewers.

There's reason to feel secure when your well-saved money is steadily earning 5% interest in the plan that suits you best. At Bank of America you can choose from several basic savings plans, any one of which may be just right for you. Take a look at these:

5% Investors Passbook Account

$500 will get this one started, and additional deposits can be made in amounts of $100 or more. Your 5% interest is compounded quarterly. You can make a withdrawal quarterly, too. Or leave your funds where they are to accumulate.

5% Time Certificate of Deposit

Bank of America Time Certificates also earn 5% annual interest. These certificates are issued for $1000 or more. They mature every 6 months. The 5% interest can be credited automatically to your savings account. Then your total annual rate of return can exceed 5%.

5% Five Year Guaranteed Certificate of Deposit

This is the long term interest guarantee plan. Certificates are issued for a minimum of $1000. Five year guaranteed interest at 5% per year paid or credited quarterly. You may withdraw the full amount at the end of any quarter without loss of interest to that date.

Regular 4% Savings Account

This is still the favorite plan of many because it's convenient, flexible, and at 4% it delivers the maximum interest allowed by law for this type of savings plan. You are free to put money in—any amount. And take it out—all or any part of it—at any time. Deposits made by the tenth of each quarter earn interest from the first of that month.

These are just four of our Personal Choice Savings plans to help your money grow with absolute certainty, and with full interest all the way. So why don't you stop by your local Bank of America branch and take your choice.

Many seek office on college board

INCUMBENTS SEEK RE-ELECTION---Mrs. Mildred H. Wharton and Edward A. Panelli (above) both of Saratoga are seeking reelection to the West Valley College governing board.

There are 11 candidates seeking the three seats that are open on the West Valley Junior College District governing board in the election on April 15.

Although the college board members are elected by the entire district, they come from specific areas represented by the three high school districts (Campbell, Santa Clara and Los Gatos-Saratoga) and are elected on that basis.

Area 2 (Santa Clara) has no incumbent in the race and there are six candidates (Anthony J. Rizzo, Myron H. Husband, Isaac Konar, Foster S. Lopes and Marcos Oriz) for the one vacancy that exists. Jack Armstrong now representing the area is retiring from the board.

Two incumbents, Edward A. Panelli and Mrs. Mildred Wharton, are seeking reelection to the two Area 1 (Los Gatos-Saratoga) openings. The other candidates are: Albert Kerst, William G. Kinder and Henry W. Safarik.

The Campbell Press in this issue publishes the statements of the candidates who submitted them by the time specified.

(STATEMENTS FOLLOW)

ALBERT KERST
(Saratoga)
(Candidate for West Valley Board)

"We can do better in our junior college with an infusion of new blood on our school board. As long as facilities are inadequate for the needs of all area residents, as long as there is no campus in Santa Clara, as long as college unrest prevails, solutions must be sought.

"With the increasing tempo of campus problems solutions must keep pace. New approaches must be weighed.

"A step in the right direction would be for only personnel problems to be handled in executive session and all others in sessions open to the public."

ISAAC KONAR
(Santa Clara)
(College board candidate)

"I have announced my candidacy for membership on the Board of Trustees of the West Valley Junior College District as a result of my sincere and intense desire to encourage higher education, which I strongly believe to be essential in our complex society.

"The increasing complexity in many professions and the rapid growth of technological aids make the possession of an Associate of Arts degree or its equivalent almost a prerequisite for obtaining any employment.

"Myself a product of the California Junior and State College System, a unique development of a democratic concept of higher public education, having received the Associate of Arts degree from Los Angeles City College in 1959 majoring in Mathematics, and the B.A. degree in January of 1969 from San Jose State College majoring in Political Science.

"In the desire to see this form of education perpetuated at the local level and in the spirit of free competition, I have announced my candidacy.

"I feel junior colleges are important gateways to both continuing higher education and vocational excellence."

FOSTER S. LOPES
(Santa Clara)
(College board candidate)

Foster S. Lopes of 3510 Earl Drive, Santa Clara, a candidate for the West Valley College Governing Board, has urged expanded efforts by students, faculty, administration, and citizens to "get talking" in an effort to head off any potential conflicts.

"Continued dialogue is vitally needed among all these groups in order to further the needs of students and community", Lopes said. "Present efforts in having high school seniors visit the college district for orientation purposes is a most significant step in this direction and should be continued. Also, increased and equal emphasis must be placed on both terminal and transfer academic programs as well as more articulation between the high school and junior college."

Lopes, a 30-year old social science teacher at Wilcox High School, Santa Clara, is seeking the seat to be vacated by veteran trustee and president of the board, Jack Armstrong.

"The local taxpayer pays 66% of the cost for junior college support, which is far too much. We've reached the limit of property tax as a source of income, and priority must be given in searching for new revenues elsewhere."

HENRY W. SAFARIK
(Saratoga)
(Candidate for West Valley Board)

"I feel that I am well qualified to assist in achieving the community objective of education for all. I am proposing the following:

"Surface transportation for students to reduce cost to parents and provide greater availability of facilities;

"Increased financial aid for needy students;

"Expanded curriculum to meet future socio-economic needs and increase student interest;

"Greater counseling to High School students;

"Re-evaluation of cost allocations to insure maximum educational return for expended dollars."

WVC students score high at San Jose State

For the fifth consecutive semester, West Valley College students who transferred to San Jose State College have earned higher grade point averages than the averages of all other transfer students from all other junior colleges.

Jerry H. Girdner, Dean of Student Personnel Services at West Valley College, said he recently had been so informed by John C. Montgomery, Director of Admissions and Records at San Jose State College.

West Valley College transfer students maintained their lofty grade point average status despite the fact that transfers had increased from the Fall semester, 1967-68 of 465 students, to 750 for the 1968-69 Fall semester, a 61 percent increase, Girdner pointed out.

Grade point average for the 1968 Fall semester for all transfer students was 2.43, while those from West Valley College showed a 2.54 g.p.a., or a plus .11 differential.

Of the 750 West Valley College transfers, 445 were continuing students; 42 had attended San Jose State College previously and were classified as returning students, and 263 were first-time transfers.

Girdner expressed pleasure with the results of this report, which, he said, "verifies the high quality of instruction and counseling that transfer students have received in their lower division preparation at West Valley College".

CANDIDATE---Charlie Cole, 1166 El Solyo, Campbell, is seeking election as a trustee for the Campbell Union High School District in the election April 15. Cole, as a consulting graphologist has helped select personnel for 200 firms and he also has done vocational analyses for students.

Cole rates the district high in efficiency but feels a number of changes are needed. A father of four children, three of whom are married, a daughter will enter Camden High next fall. Cole also has five grandchildren.

Property tax deadline nears (It's April 10

Taxpayers should take note the deadline for payment of second installment real estate taxes is just around the corner.

Payments must be received or postmarked no later than April 10 to avoid penalty.

Edward N. Glaeser, County Director of Finance, reminds taxpayers that last year those who did not heed the warning on tax payments contributed over $400,000 in penalties.

Dropping the tax payment in the mail box at the last minute will not necessarily assure safety from delinquency, informs the Tax Collector's Office.

A sufficient time to secure a postmark before the deadline is the taxpayer's responsibility.

Any payment received after the deadline is subject to a 6 percent penalty and three additional dollars per parcel post. After June 30, additional penalties will accrue.

The Tax Collector's Office advises that those who have not received tax bills can obtain them at the Tax Office, Room 107, County Administration Building, 70 West Hedding St., San Jose.

The rate of arthritis among women is 80 per cent higher than among men.

Spring semester adult education starts April 11

Adult education classes which will start the second half of the spring semester are currently taking registrations at the Campbell office, 379-8550, and evenings at Camden High School.

A First Aid course will be offered at Campbell Center beginning April 11, while courses in speed reading are available at Camden, as well as electronic assembly, business finance, business management, investment planning, law for the layman, personnel management, marketing management and a host of other courses designed for those interested in small business operations, furthering their own opportunities in present jobs, or of obtaining a business credential.

All classes, sponsored by Metropolitan Adult Education Program, are available for a single $1.50 registration fee. Call 293-5400 for information on all adult classes.

Evening adult investment classes start

"How's the market, Joe?"

"Great, made a little money on my mutual funds, and I'm going to buy an apartment house."

Sounds good, doesn't it? And, if you have no background at all in investing, an adult education class beginning 7 to 10 p.m., April 7 at Camden High School may hold some answers for you.

Don Nadell, an investment counselor, teaches basic investment practices and aids each student in developing his own individual program geared to his own needs.

The course, titled "Investment Planning", will cover mutual funds, stock market, bank, savings and loan, real estate, bonds and trust and will planning.

Registration for the class may be made by calling the Campbell Adult Center.

TV survey soon to take place within county

Television viewers in this County very shortly will have a chance to tell an interviewer what they like and don't like about programs.

The first study of its kind ever undertaken by an Educational television station, it will use the results of an April systematic survey of audience program needs and interests as a guide for selecting KTEH programs for broadcast.

The manager, Dr. Warren L. Wade, has received a $10,000 grant from the Corporation for Public Broadcasting, an independent agency established by Congress, to make the study in Santa Clara County.

Telephone interviewers will call 1,000 homes in the County to question TV viewers about what type of programs they would like to see and whether they watch KQED, Channel 9, KTEH, Channel 54, or KCSM, Channel 14, the College of San Mateo educational station.

One hundred of the persons interviewed will be visited at home by interviewers for longer, in-depth interviews about their program preferences. Similar interviewing will be done in San Mateo County.

Following the survey the results will be tabulated and recommendations prepared which could influence fall programming, especially of educational television stations.

What's Mickey Mantle's real first name?... Few fans know that "Mickey" is NOT a nickname... His real full name is Mickey Charles Mantle.

Here's quite an oddity from baseball... There once was an outfielder named Johnny Cooney... Perhaps you remember him... He played in the majors from 1921 to 1944 ... Well, here's the oddity ... In his more than 20 years in the big leagues, he hit only two home runs - and the two of them came on successive days!...

The campaign ended on a successful note as the branch topped its membership goal. New abstract painter amazes artistic world

The artistic world is looking with amazement at five abstract paintings done by Elizabeth Hubbard, 26 year old mother of three who resides on South First St. in Campbell. According to Mrs. Frances Kersch, art instructor, Beth has done what no other artist has ever done before, in expressing five entirely different moods within a space of only a few months.

Mrs. Kersch, formerly with the San Francisco Museum and art instructor for many years, is presently teaching classes at the West Valley Senior Action Center on Rincon Ave. Mrs. Kersch stated that "art is a language, and abstract art is the music and poetry of that language. With it one may give spontaneous expression to one's self."

Mrs. Kersch has taken the five paintings to a specialist meeting of the Social Workers in Mill Valley, and her lecture concerning them was so well received that she was asked to bring them back and repeat it to another group. She also plans to display the pictures before Santa Clara County groups as the group of five, called "The Five Moods" so clearly illustrates the different moods that Beth experienced.

The group is presently on display in the window of the Campbell City Library, corner of Central and Campbell Ave.

The five abstracts, the first two done in shades of blue, the third in green, the fourth in yellow combinations and the fifth showing an explosion of color denoting ecstasy, are among the first works of Beth Hubbard who shows great promise.

FIVE MOODS---Now on display in the Campbell Library is the abstract group called "Five Moods" painted by Elizabeth Hubbard. The five moods range from anger and despair to ecstasy.

Yellow tax exemption form may save you money on 1969 tax bill

If you get a yellow tax exemption form in the mail from the County Assessor's Office don't throw it away. Fill it in and return it. It could save you money on your 1969 property tax bill, the Assessor's Office reports.

The form is not a duplicate of the $70 tax refund claim.

Anyone who owns and lives in a home, a duplex or a condominium apartment in this County on March 1 is entitled to a $750 exemption on the assessed value of his property for 1969, unless he receives a veterans tax exemption.

The Assessor's Office is now mailing the yellow form to all dwelling owners in the county.

Apparently the mailing is confusing people who filed previously for the $70 refund on their 1968 taxes.

When the voters approved Proposition 1-A on the November ballot they authorized both the $70 refund on the 1968 taxes and the $750 tax exemption for each year starting with 1969. This exemption is similar to the one received by California veterans, and like the veterans exemption the owner must each year file a statement that he owned his home on March 1 of that year.

The veterans exemption law provides that a veteran can lose his exemption if the assessed value of his property rises above $5,000 for a single person or $10,000 for a married vet.

For that reason veterans are receiving forms for both the veterans and the homeowner's exemption. The Assessor's Office says a veteran should apply for both. If a veteran loses his vet's exemption he will receive the homeowner's exemption.

Also if a veteran owns and lives in a home and owns other property he may claim the homeowner's exemption on his home and the veteran's exemption on the second property.

Also anyone who believes he is entitled to the $70 refund for 1968 still may apply. Property owners who have not received the white application form should call 286-7850.

With the United States deeply involved in an unpopular war the increase in the number of Americans who resent our military establishment is not surprising. Today I receive more derogatory comments about the so-called "military-industrial complex" than ever before.

This national discontent has developed into a widespread demand for diverting national defense funds to the solution of urgent domestic problems. Somehow the American people have come to believe that the Russians can be trusted and do truly want peace. So there is relatively little national concern over the slowdown in the development of improved weapons systems since President Eisenhower left office.

Personally, I am hopeful that Russia's long-range planning is for peace. But as a realist I can't overlook certain facts.

Soviet land forces have become relatively more powerful vis-a-vis the free world. Recent emphasis upon missiles, and ABM's have narrowed the margin of strategic strength enjoyed by the West. But the most dramatic change has been the improved relative position of Russian Naval power.

The Seapower Subcommittee, of which I am a member, issued a report which clearly describes Russia's development as a military seapower while the United States' declines. It shows that 58% of the U. S. Naval combatant ships are twenty years old, while only 1% of the Soviet Navy ships are that old.

Our report states further: "....In the postwar years, the Soviets designed and built about 20 classes of surface ships totaling over 550 ships. Most were developed and built after 1962. Since 1945 they have built approximately 400 submarines.

"The Soviets have seven major shipbuilding yards capable of constructing 20 nuclear attack submarines each year along with an increased surface ship construction program. Among these facilities is the largest building yard in the world....

"In 1966 the Soviets had 7,000 students enrolled in schools for naval architects and marine engineers; the United States had only 300. ...Soviet destroyers have demonstrated seaworthy qualities superior to U. S. destroyers, they have greater horsepower and a higher sustained speed capability.

"Over the years, the Soviets have produced a large number of various classes of submarines, each better than the last. ....Evidence indicates the Soviets clearly recognize the advantages of a quieter and faster submarine. ....They now have nuclear powered submarines capable of launching ballistic missiles while submerged.

"Having what amounts to a virtually new fleet, the Soviets have begun to use it more extensively. They have a large force in the Mediterranean and more ships than the United States in the Indian Ocean."

After looking at these facts, each American should ask himself: "Do the actions and the deeds of the Soviet Union indicate a true desire for peace?

College board hears report on 'operation share'

The Board of Trustees of West Valley College Thursday night heard a progress report on the student participation in "Operation Share", the tutorial program undertaken by college students for educationally-deprived children within the boundaries of the college district.

The report, presented to the Board by Dr. Wallace W. Hall, college president, was prepared by Mrs. Marilyn Giovanetti, assigned as program coordinator by the County Office of Education.

The original portion of the project involving West Valley College students called for 125 tutors to work with elementary school students in the area, while actually there were 130 students who participated in "Operation Share" in its first semester at the college.

Of these, 90 have returned for further service during the current semester, and the total for this semester is up to 143 students, Dr. Hall reported. Students are serving as tutors in the school districts of Cambrian, Campbell Union, Los Gatos Union, Moreland, Santa Clara Unified, Saratoga Union, Union, Campbell Union High and at St. Lucy's parochial school.

Deborah Hudson, Martha Hanks, Vicki Kellar, Barbara Kupbens, Linda Mason, Bobby Jane Perry, Rose Phillips, Jolly Polikowski, Ursula Ruks.

NEIGHBORHOOD 15

"Big doin's with Dads" seems to be the trend with a couple of Junior Scout troops in Neighborhood 15 these days.

The Forest Hill Jr.'s, Troop 953, recently had a Dad and Daughter Kite Flying Contest. It was not disclosed just how successful the Dads were at getting their kites airborne but everyone had fun being together and that's really what counts.

On March 13, thirty-one Bucknall Jr.'s, Troop 704, entertained their dads and special guests at a Dad and Daughter Dinner. The troop provided the delicious ham for the meal and the mothers graciously prepared the little extras and served the dinner for the girls.

Part of the evenings events were fun and frolic with skits and songs. The remainder of the program consisted of the more serious side of Scouting to allow the fathers to see just what type of organization their daughter belongs to and how special it is to her.

Two girls, brand new to Scouting, Lisa Cavazos and Tracy Corum, were invested during a candlelight ceremony. A Court of Awards followed with the presentation of many badges earned by the troop members.

NEIGHBORHOOD 17

"Bonjour, Brownies, Hola!" so greeted four members of Cadette Girl Scout Troop No. 13 last week as they participated in an International Friendship program with their little sister Brownie Scouts, Troop No. 840, at Rosemary School.

Trudi Davis, Terry Vervich, Nancy Sandkohl and Christie Casteel demonstrated visually, with travel posters, far-a-way places; they taught "The Rainmaker" game, which originated in Denmark; they showed how the world is your neighbor in song; they astounded their little sister Scouts with first grade textbooks used by Terry Vervich seven years ago when she attended first grade in Belgium. The books were written, with ink, in script.

As a climax to the program, the older girls pinned an International Friendship pin on each Brownie. They closed the event with "Au Revoir, Brownies, Adios!"

Mrs. Clifford Mahler and Mrs. Charles Perston advise and guide Troop 13. Brownie leaders are Mrs. Gerald Bourgeau and Mrs. James Churchill. Mrs. Gruver Davis, Brownie Consultant, was invited as a special guest.

FOREST HILL

On Friday, March 14, the third annual Father-Daughter Banquet by the Camp Fire Girls of Forest Hill School was held. Mrs. Wanda Siggers and Mrs. Carol Plisard acted as co-ordinators for the event and Mrs. Margaret Wingo was the Master of Ceremonies.

Chet Goodson, chairman of the Go-Dad's, gave a very interesting and informative talk to the 150 guests in attendance. The Go-Dad's are a group of interested fathers who devote some of their spare time helping to repair and improve Camp Wastahi-the Camp Fire Camp in the Santa Cruz Mountains. Following the pot-luck dinner each of the seven Camp Fire Groups contributed towards an interesting hour of entertainment.

LATIMER SCHOOL

The fourth grade Camp Fire Girls in Mrs. Norma McKenty's group have adopted some 30 elderly people at a convalescent home near their school.

These girls started by singing Christmas carols the week before Christmas. They were so rewarded by this experience that they wanted to do more. To date they have made napkin rings and tray favors for Valentine's Day and tissue carnations and shamrocks for St. Patrick's Day. They plan to make this a year long project.

PUPPET SHOW--Marianne Christen, a member of Junior Girl Scout Troop 861, took part in the clever three-part puppet show put on recently by the troop members in commemoration of Girl Scout week. Here she is telling her sawdust witch puppet that "If you treat animals nice, they'll treat you nice".

FASHION SHOW

Members of Job's Daughter's, Bethel No. 174, recently enjoyed a fashion show and the spring fashions from J. C. Penney's were several members of the Bethel. The affair was held in the Orchard City Grange Hall.

The very successful show was under the direction of Cindy Stephenson.

MIRROR TILES

Do-it-yourself mirror tiles have been introduced by Hamilton of Indiana, Inc., Chicago. The 12x12 inch tiles feature adhesive strips that stick to any clean surface of wood, metal, plaster or glass.

Outdoor Area Has Inside Job, Too

There are two sides to every patio.

Outside, the patio is a handy site for sunning, relaxing, entertaining, dining, or for a fresh air break on a busy day.

From inside, the patio should:

Serve as a house extension, opening rooms adjacent to the patio to the outdoors.

Provide an attractive view, which often becomes the visual highlight of the room.

Give a home-bound family a refreshing outdoor "feeling" on cold or inclement days.

The success of a patio's several "inside" jobs depends on the proper selection of windows and doors. As entries, gliding doors are attractive and practical. Their uninterrupted glass area gives an extensive outdoor view, and their easy operation allows convenient patio access.

In wood gliding doors, insulating glass units made from tempered glass provide a bonus of safety, suggests the Andersen Corporation, manufacturer of windows.

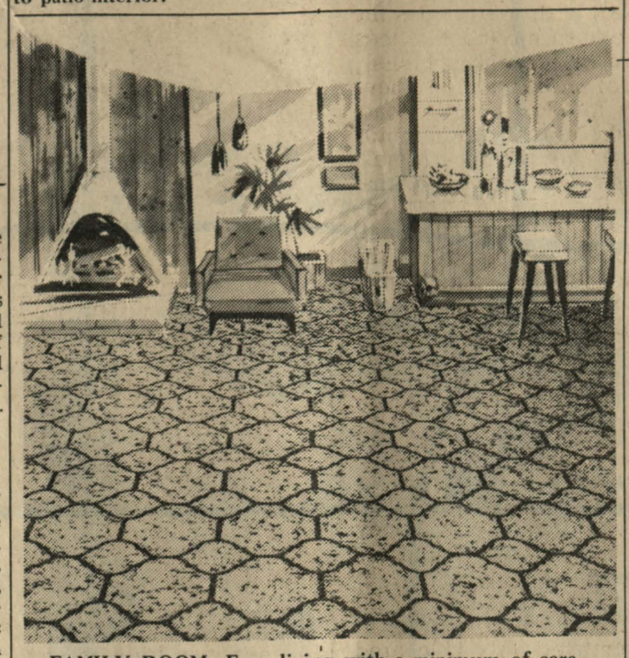
Gliding doors are also available with heat- and glare-reducing glass.

Painting chores can be avoided by choosing gliding doors with rigid vinyl sheathing over a preservative-treated wood core that does not require painting and will not pit, rust or corrode.

Welded insulating glass is standard with such units.

Maintenance-free vinyl sheathing is also available with casement and awning windows, both of which are frequently used for patio enclosures. They give a good view, and allow maximum ventilation.

STRIPED TRANSLUCENT PLASTIC PANELS bring light, color to patio interior.



FAMILY ROOM---Easy living with a minimum of care was the guiding purpose in the design of this family room submitted by the makers of Armstrong floor coverings. Here is shown their new Castilian pattern, a cushioned vinyl floor which provides wall-to-wall seamless beauty for any room up to 12 feet wide. It features a special built-in foam layer that cushions every step and a rugged vinyl surface to make cleaning a breeze.

FILTERING WATER

Attached to cold water line under kitchen sink, Aqua-Pure P50 home water filter takes unpleasant tastes, odors — of sulphur, chlorine and other substances — out of drinking water. Activated charcoal cartridge inside filter is changed twice a year.

CLEANING AIR

Housekeeping ease, relief for allergy sufferers are among advantages claimed for electronic air cleaners, which remove pollen, dust, smoke and other airborne irritants. Honeywell Electronic Air Cleaners are available in portable and central system units for home or office.

PLANTING LILIES

Lilies usually thrive in soil with some acidity, and in locations that combine ample sunshine with protection from wind.

GETTING COLORFUL

Housewares brighten up in lively yellow hues, are spiced with hot reds and emerald greens. Avocado and copper tones continue strong.

Homemaker Uses Imagination Plus Printed Carpet

A utility room, sun porch or basement that's never amounted to much takes on a peppy look with the addition of one of the new printed carpets. The carpets come in a rainbow of colors and patterns to blend with every decorating scheme.

These carpets are completely practical, too. They are made of durable, stain-resistant fibers and are backed with high density foam rubber so that no separate carpet pad is needed.

Here are some "themes" an imaginative homemaker can apply.

An enclosed sun porch makes an excellent potting shed, and the plants and flowers add to the visual decoration. A built-in bench holds the plants — and wall shelves the gardening supplies.

If potting soil is dropped on the carpet, it is easy to brush or vacuum away.

A laundry room is another good place for a potting shed arrangement, because the humidity in the air is good for the plants. Since the carpet and its foam rubber backing are mildew proof, the moisture won't affect them.

If her interest in gardening is limited, a homemaker might turn the laundry area into a small home office or even into a private gym. The carpet makes a good mat for exercising, and while the clothes are in the dryer she can tune up tired muscles.

In a basement turned playroom, printed carpet is doubly attractive. It goes down right over the concrete, providing warmth and comfort for the children.

UTILITY CONTAINER

Plastic household utility container called "Tear, Tote and Toss," has been developed by Republic Molding Corp., Chicago. It has its own built-in supply of disposable polyethylene liner-bags and can be used as a hamper, diaper receptacle, or for wet and dry refuse in kitchen or family room.

FILTERING WATER

Attached to cold water line under kitchen sink, Aqua-Pure P50 home water filter takes unpleasant tastes, odors — of sulphur, chlorine and other substances — out of drinking water. Activated charcoal cartridge inside filter is changed twice a year.

West Valley Sports

W V BASEBALL

The batmen of West Valley College pounded out 16 hits for 10 runs but it took them 11 innings to put down the upset-minded Santa Rosa ballclub. The Vikes won 10-8 last Saturday at the loser's field.

Ten errors cost WVC as Santa Rosa took advantage of the miscues put together with their ten hits to score eight runs. At one point the Bear Cats held a 5-4 margin.

SWIMMERS PLACE

Ray Rivero and Ken Beckman again take the swimming spotlight as each excelled in the Vikes 65-45 loss to De Anza. Beckman won the 500 free while Rivero took the 200 individual medley, the 200 breast, and the 200 fly.

Rivero's 2:04.0 in the fly is the best this year in the Bay Area giving him leaderships now in four events: the fly, the IM, the back and the breast.

TRACK WINNERS

Mike Toler continued his winning ways in the 440 yard intermediate hurdles and Rich Dunn won the triple-jump as the Viking trackmen swept a triangular meet last Friday with 65½ points to Hartnell's 64½ and Marin's 38. Dennis Fuller won the 220 and Kevin Wheeler won the 100 to push the Vikes to the tri-win. Jim Galetto, Fuller, Wheeler, and Bob Christianson combined to win the 440 yard relay in 43.2, their best time of the year.

SOFTBALL

The defending champion Fly Swatters and the Whities, led by ex-cage star Gary Anderson, snatched victories in the first week of intramural softball at the College. The Swatters defeated the Slash Whiplocks 4-3 while the Whities were outhitting the US Keds, recently heralded as the intramural basketball champs, 16-15.

Carl Merriam seeks CUHS office

CARL MERRIAM

One of the candidates seeking election to the Campbell Union High School District board of trustees in the April 15 election is Carl Merriam of 1572 Blossom Hill Rd., San Jose, an employee of General Electric.

Merriam issued the following statement:

"I am seeking election to the Board of Trustees of the Campbell Union High School District because I want to contribute to the continuing development and well being of the district.

"I believe that education is the most important single function of government and that the quality of education depends primarily on the quality of the teachers.

"I want the CUHS District to be one in which each student can obtain an excellent education suited to his or her capabilities and desires and in which good teachers are rewarded with personal recognition and increased pay for excellence in the classroom.

"My background is principally that of a taxpayer and father of a district student. I am 55 years old, a graduate of San Jose State and currently employed at the Nuclear Energy Division of General Electric Co. in San Jose.

"I am married and have two daughters. Linda is a senior at Branham High School and Beth is in the fourth grade at Cinnabar Elementary School."

Easter vacation brought about the end of the third quarter. Now with only nine more weeks left, many students are looking forward to the summer.

Girls Sports are beginning to plan for their camping trip during Mothers Day weekend. The trip will be to Camp Kennoyln in the Santa Cruz Mountains. The $7 weekend will be shared with Blackfords Girls Sports.

For the past week and through next week, the Eastman Kodak Company had a display of their photography exhibits in the library. These pictures were taken by high school students all over the country.

The Bank of America semi-finalists were announced last week. They are George Akina in Fine Arts, Will Clever in Vocational Arts, Randy Fujishin in Science and Math and Steve Rosenthal in Liberal Arts. On April 10, George, Randy and Steve will compete against other Valley contestants at the University of Santa Clara.

Campbell is going to have an art festival in the latter part of this month. This festival is open to any Campbell students. They can do their art projects in two divisions. One being classroom work and the other being independent work. The projects can be of anything consisting of art. All entries must be in by noon of April 16.

For further information, students should contact Miss Valdez, Mrs. Ikemoto or Mr. Quigley.

Next Wednesday there will be a junior/senior recreation night in the girls and boys gym from 7-9. Any interested junior or senior is invited to attend.

Any senior interested in local scholarships are urged to get their application in Mrs. Parker's office as soon as possible.

Last Thursday the pictures of the Senior Ball came in. The majority of the pictures turned out quite well.

Congress honors new Campbell hospital chief

Samuel H. Franks, new administrator of Campbell Community Hospital, is the subject of a long paean of praise in a recent issue of the Congressional Record.

Franks came to the Campbell facility recently after long service with the Veterans Administration, including the position of director of the VA Hospital in Salt Lake City, Utah.

The laudatory remarks were offered by Rep. John P. Saylor of Pennsylvania, a member of the House Veterans Committee and long concerned with Veterans affairs.

In his remarks, Rep. Saylor pointed out that Franks had recently departed the service of the Veterans Administration, with which he became affiliated shortly after World War II. He was first assigned to a branch office in San Francisco and later named assistant director of the old Oakland hospital. Two years later he was appointed director of that facility.

Following his service in California, Saylor said, Franks was assigned to the Veterans Administration in West Haven, Conn., and in 1966 was given the Salt Lake City assignment, where he served with distinction.

"He brought to the Veterans Administration a wealth of knowledge, a sparkling personality, a keen judgment of individuals, a know-how and a dedication to the principle, which should motivate all our Veterans Administration hospitals, that the veteran's care comes first", Saylor said.
